Review I. [electronic version]

(“Polish Philology. Zielona Góra University Research Yearbook”)

Text under review:

PROPOSED REVIEWING PROCEDURE

A. A review consists of four parts: 1. Detailed assessment, 2. Descriptive assessment (to be completed where necessary, e.g. when it is necessary to indicate an error or shortcoming), 3. General assessment (optional; the most important positive or negative features of the text may be indicated), 4. Final assessment.

B. Please submit reviews via the Internet.

1. Detailed assessment

Reviewed aspect of the article	Score (0–10)
1. Title/content relationship	0
2. Source documentation	0
3. Clarity / communicativeness	0
4. Extent of exemplification supporting the theses argued	0
5. Level of scholarly discourse	0
6. Research context and knowledge of the existing state of research	0
7. Originality of the conclusions presented	0
8. Research methodology / methods of argumentation	0
9. Adequacy of the abstract to the material presented	0
10. Other merits	0
TOTAL	0

Note 1: When completing the form electronically, please enter the appropriate suggested scores in the relevant rows. Then, to calculate the total automatically, select the bold “0” next to “TOTAL” and press the F9 function key.

Note 2: A separate review should be prepared for each article; therefore, the template should be duplicated as necessary.

2. Descriptive assessment

3. General assessment

4. Final assessment

For publication / Not for publication / For publication subject to fulfillment of the above requirements

(Delete or cross out whichever is not applicable.)